

Executor Game Story Bible

Basic Story Overview

The setting of this game is a fictional world based on 20th century England. The main character, Edward, is a monster hunter. The goal of this game is to defeat monsters that caused the death of his family, and to seek the truth of the corrupted world.

Motivation

All characters' actions are driven by the topic of revenge. This is an unbreakable cycle between them. Charles wants to get revenge to his father and the corrupted world. The hunter wants Charles to pay back. Edward is urged to kill Charles. The king attempted to use the power of vampire to take over his power. The player can decide whether Edward should accept his fate, giving up everything of being a human to get his revenge or let go and use his power to protect others. (The ending of the game will be determined by the way how Edward gets his revenge, slaughtering everyone or trying to avoid battles.)

Introduction

After the death of the entire family, Edward is also severely wounded and almost dead. A monster hunter saved him by injecting a special potion to his body. This hunter taught him how to fight monsters. After that, our character started his journey of revenge.

Characters

Player Character

Edward

Edward Mclamb is the son of Clinton Mclamb. He witnessed the death of his whole family. His family is in charge of the mine business of the city. His goal is to defeat monsters that caused the death of his family, and to seek the truth of the corrupted world.

Non-Play Character

Charles

Charles is the head of the vampire family. Hundreds of years ago, Charles (temporarily) fell in love with a human girl and Charles' father killed her to keep the secret of the vampire family from outside. Young Charles lost control and killed his father with deep indignation. In hundreds of years, he had been seeing uncountable killings of humans or monsters. He swears to create an equal world for monsters and humans. And he started to seek a way that could help vampires resist to the sun. He is planning to bring new rules to this corrupted world. The monsters, “stalkers”, will be his force help him building a new era.

King

In this world, the lower class is the target of exploiting by the nobles. The king is timid and weak. He compromised to monsters. The king is volunteered to be turned to a vampire for getting revenge to the nobles who wants to take over his thorn. The king becomes the puppet that will help Charles to build his monster world.

The Old Hunter

The mother of the hunter was a maid of Charles, and one day she accidentally discovered that Charles is a monster. Then Charles locked the hunter and his mother in a cage. Charles used the first version of the potion on the hunter for experiment purpose. The hunter lost control and killed his mother, then he lost this memory. He thought it is Charles who killed his mother. Once, he got a chance to escape out, and during the escape process, he stole a bottle of potion. Due to the potion's effect, he has been killing people and sucking their blood in the past years. It also improved his strength. For tens of years, he is seeking for Charles to get his revenge.

The Doctor

The doctor is the one who helped Charles to develop the potion. He made a deal with Charles that if he could make the potion, then, Charles would turn his dying brother to a vampire to save him.

The “Stalkers”

Pale skin monsters with no ears and noses, which is created by the third version of the potion. They served as mercenary of the vampire family. Stalkers sometimes hide in the shadow and attack people with their sharp claws. They inherited the genes of the vampire, but they can move under the sun light. These monsters feed on human blood.

Edward's Fiancée

She was killed by Charles in the killing of Edward's family. Later she appears as the humanity and goodness inside Edward. She is an illusion in Edward's mind.

Chapter 1 “Journey”

Edward starts his journey of hunting monsters and tracing Charles. He walks through villages, asking for Charles' information. When he is passing through a village, those villagers showed extreme anger to him. These are the people who have been exploited by Edward's father. Opposing to Edward, they are happy about the death of his father. They let out the "Stalkers", Charles left here to control the village, to attack Edward. After Edward defeats the stalkers, a villager pushes Edward off the cliff.

Chapter 2 "Illusion"

Edward awakes and he starts to see his fiancée standing right in front of him, but he cannot see her face clearly. The player can choose to suck the dead villager's blood to help healing or go and find someone for help. He gets to a village and find that villagers are making contract with a group of vampires in order to be turned and get an external life. Edward fights with those villagers and vampires. After he killed those villagers and monsters, Edward sees that his fiancée is crying.

Chapter 3 "Power"

Along the journey, Edward got a mask from a group of vampire hunters. Edward follows them assaulted a vampire camp. During the killing, Edward figured that they do not deserve death, these vampires feed on animals' blood. Edward started to contemplate this meaningless slaughtering. "The one with power decides which is right and which is wrong."

Chapter 4 "Sacrifice"

With the information from the vampire hunters, Edward traces to a doctor, who invented the potion. Edward destroyed all the potion samples after defeated the guardians vampires. The doctor is furious, and he injected an augmented potion. He becomes a monster and wants to kill Edward. After a huge combat, when Edward is about to finish the doctor's life, the doctor's brother comes out and try to defend the doctor. Edward hesitates.

Chapter 5 "Revenge"

With the killing of stalkers and the information gathered from the journey, Edward finds Charles's castle. Edward finished Charles and Charles tells Edward about the king. Charles is taking over the country.

Chapter 6 "Corruption Inside"

Edward is seeing the corruption of the country. The upper classes are mercilessly exploiting the lower classes and the citizens are suffering from the war between the nobles. Hunters are killing vampires no matter they are good or bad. Some good vampires start to kill human for revenge, and some are just kill to feed themselves. Edward gets to the palace of the king and finished him.

Chapter 7 “Broken dreams”

Edward comes back to the old hunter who saved him, but he finds that the hunter has become a monster because he killed too many people. Edward defeated him and tells the hunter that Charles is dead. The hunter smiles and passes away.

Equipment

Special Potion:

The potion augmented Edward by allowing him to heal faster than normal people. Edward can increase the healing process by drinking blood from human or monsters. It is invested by the vampires and developed by a human doctor for the purpose of gaining sun resistance. However, the plan is failed the first batch of the potion has no effect to the vamp but turns human to a half vampire: the human can heal exceptionally fast and could be rage if they tasted the blood. The second batch increased the percentage of the vampire’s blood and is able to turn normal human to an insensible monster, the stalkers, and they are fostered by the vamp as the guardians of their property.

Magic Mask

Edward gets the mask from a group of hunters. The mask can cover half of the humanity of the user, while, providing the mask user with power (increase agility, move objects with black magic)
